

CENTENARY MEDALS

Science and technology

Bahram Boutorabi

BAHRAM BOUTORABI

The founder of Warriewood company Creative Digital Technologies is an IT industry pioneer. He developed CDT's first website before Netscape had developed its browser and well before Microsoft had developed any internet technology. He developed the retail industry's first e-commerce solution and is also a recognised world leader in the provision of payment and authentication products for financial institutions. Two years ago CDT launched a revolutionary new document management system Filesphere.